Morgan Begins His Testimony In Bank Probe

Head Of Great Financial House Before Senate Banking Hearing

MAKES DEFENSE OF PRIVATE BANKING

Concedes Mistakes Have Been Made During Last Five Years

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 23.—J. Pierpont Morgan, head of one of the world's great financial houses, began his testimony in the senate's banking investigation today with an elaborate and vigorous defense of the private banking system.

There is room, he contended, for both the private and the incorporated banking systems, for the latter perform many functions that an incorporated institution cannot. Thru the years, he said, the private bankers of the world have built up a code of ethics of their own and the penalty for violation is the sacrifice of credit.

The financier claimed for the private banker "no more power of knowing the future than any other men."

"We have made many mistakes," he conceded, and added: "who has not during the past five years?"

"But our mistakes have been errors of judgment and not of principle."

Assert Davis' Speech Is Not Policy Change

Administration Officials Deny Interpretations Made By European Nations

NO ABANDONMENT OF "OLD POLICIES"

U. S. However Is Offering Greater Degree Of Co-operation Than Ever Before

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 23.—President Roosevelt has offered a greater degree of American co-operation with other powers to keep the world at peace, but administration officials staunchly maintained today there has been no radical departure from America's traditional policy of judging for itself in world affairs.

Irrespective of what interpretations have been placed abroad on the speech of Norman H. Davis, at Geneva, yesterday, Washington has its own interpretation, and it differs materially from the screaming headlines of Europe, which proclaim American abandonment of an historic policy.

Proposals by U. S.

Stripped of diplomatic niceties, what Davis proposed was:

The United States is willing to enter into a pact to "consult" with other powers in the event of a threatened war.

The United States is willing to cooperate with other powers for international supervision of armaments.

The United States is willing to forego certain neutrality rights in the event of war, provided that we agree as to who is the aggressor.

All this in exchange for drastic curtailment of armaments.

There are many "ifs, ands, and buts" in the proposal which Davis laid before the Geneva conference. The heart of his offer was contained in the following:

"We are willing to consult the (Continued On Page Two)"

Have Hearing In Cade Death

Circumstantial Evidence Is Presented In Alderman's Court By Prosecution

DEFENDANTS HELD FOR COURT TRIAL

Circumstantial evidence will be depended upon in the cases against Miss Billea Van Giesen and Harry Gross, charged with the death of William H. Cade, 67, in his home on the East Brook road, October 15, 1932. This fact was admitted by District Attorney John S. Powers in the court of Alderman James C. Brice Monday afternoon when a preliminary hearing was held. Despite the protestations of counsel that no case had been made out, Alderman Brice held the pair for the June term of court, giving as his reason the fact that his function was to hold where there appeared to be reasonable grounds for further investigation by the grand jury.

With Miss Van Giesen and Gross the following were held as accessories after the fact, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Campbell, Charles and Raymond McCowin, Mary Reinhart, Elta Zeigler and Tom Hartzell. The holding of them met with loud protests from the battery of attorneys representing the various defendants, but Alderman Brice made the same ruling as in the two previous cases.

Call Cade's Son

Russell Cade, son of the deceased man was called first as a witness for the commonwealth, in the case against Gross. He testified that he went out to see his father often, and that he had been there on the night of October 15. His father told him there was to be a party and invited him to stay. He declined and came on into New Castle. Next morning, Sunday, he went back out to his father's home and found the (Continued On Page Two)

New Wilmington Citizens Present Protest To Pitts

Six Hundred Sign Remonstrances Against Beer License In Town

PETITIONS GIVEN TO PITTS TODAY

Town Aroused Over Rumor License Is To Be Sought In Borough

Aroused by rumors that an attempt will be made to secure a beer license in the borough of New Wilmington, citizens of that place this morning filed a large remonstrance with County Treasurer, William O. Pitts. The remonstrance which was presented through Attorney William McElwee, Jr., contains the names of 597 residents of New Wilmington.

Eight separate documents make up the remonstrance, the work having been divided up so that the town could be covered quickly. The first of the petitions contains 59 signatures, the second; 53; third, 91; fourth, 88; fifth, 58; sixth, 107; seventh, 86 and eighth, 55.

The remonstrance, addressed to County Treasurer, William O. Pitts, says: "We, the undersigned residents of New Wilmington hereby remonstrate and protest against the granting of any license to sell liquors of alcoholic content of 3.2 per cent, either at retail or as distributors in the borough of New Wilmington."

"We believe that a license would be injurious to the welfare of the community, and especially to the welfare of Westminster College."

"We further believe that there is not sufficient demand for the said liquors on the part of persons residing in the said borough to justify the granting of a license of either kind, and the only purpose that would be served thereby would be the creation of a rendezvous for persons coming from other places, desiring to conduct wild parties, and other forms of entertainment."

U. S. AMBASSADOR FORMALLY GREET'S KING

Bingham Pays Visit To King

New American Ambassador Presents Diplomatic Credentials To King

George

MEETING LASTS FOR 15 MINUTES

(International News Service)
LONDON, May 22.—Judge Robert W. Bingham, new American ambassador to Great Britain, presented his diplomatic credentials to King George in a formal ceremony at Buckingham Palace today.

Accompanied by other embassy officials, he was conveyed to the palace by an imposing cavalcade of three royal semi-state coaches provided by the king and his majesty. The stately procession, which went from the chancery in Grosvenor Gardens, entered the palace gates at 10:50 a. m. It was the first time since the regime of former Ambassador Houghton that the king had provided royal coaches for an American ambassador.

A small crowd, mostly Americans, took pictures of the glittering scene as the maroon coaches, replete with coachmen and footmen in red coats and cocked hats, blue knee breeches, white stockings and black, silver-buckled shoes, began the short journey.

It was understood the king received Bingham with utmost cordiality and displayed great friendliness during the 15 minute audience.

old man on the floor dead, with several wounds in his head.

Cross examined by Attorney Dickey, Cade denied that he had told Mrs. Edward Campbell that he had been out to his father's home at three thirty Sunday morning, and that the aged man had been sleeping and he left him alone. He admitted that his father had had some trouble previously with a man named Gettings.

Dr. Paul Wilson was called and testified that he had been called to the Cade home and found the aged man dead from injuries and subsequent hemorrhages. He described the wounds on the scalp and the face. He stated that the blows could have been caused by some blunt instrument and asked by Powers if a beer bottle could have been the cause, he said it was possible.

Coroner Orville Potter testified that he had been called and found Mr. Cade dead. He said that he had talked to Harry Gross and that Gross had admitted he and a girl named Billea Van Giesen had been on a party at the Cade home on the night of October 15, and named the other seven as being present. His story to Potter was that they had gone from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Campbell to a dance hall on the Ellwood road and from there had gone out to Cades stopping on the way to buy some whiskey.

They parted a while at Cades, doing considerable drinking (Potter said Gross said). He and Billea Van Giesen had gone to the bedroom as Miss Van Giesen wanted to rest her feet. Cade came in and was inclined to be attentive to Miss Van Giesen, whereupon she kicked him and said to Gross, "let's get out of here." Potter continuing said Gross told him that he and Billea walked out and that the party broke up, but not before they had taken a lot of beer with them.

The party went back to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Campbell on Oak street according to Potter's testimony, where they played cards and drank beer until about daylight. When they heard of the death of Mr. Cade, they all gathered in the Campbell home on Monday night and discussed what they should do. It was finally decided that they should not tell the authorities, Potter testified he was told.

Cross examined he said that Gross had said that Cade had told him there were other folks coming that night.

Detective Lee County Detective H. Martin "Peck" Lee was called and testified to conversations he had with all of the defendants, some of which had been taken down in statement form. His conversation with Gross tallied with the conversation Potter had with Gross. He also said that Gross told him that Cade had been helped into bed and that after putting the old man to bed the party left Cades, Gross and Miss Van Giesen being the last to leave.

Here the commonwealth rested and Powers asked that Gross be held for the June term of criminal court. Counsel for the defense protested that no case had been made out but Alderman Brice held Gross. The case against Miss Van Giesen was then taken up, with the testimony of Russell Cade and Dr. Paul Wilson being admitted the same without re-examination.

Coroner Orville Potter testified that he had talked to Miss Billea Van Giesen and she had admitted being on a party at Cades with Gross and the rest of the crowd.

Miss Van Giesen said, according to Potter, that she had talked to the old man while the rest of them took the beer and they left for New Castle. She said that the old man made a gurgling sound in his throat and she asked him if she could get him a basin as he appeared sick.

She also told Potter, he said, that the crowd had met in Campbell's on Monday night and talked over what they should do, finally agreeing to say nothing to any one. Powers then asked that Miss Van Giesen be held for June term of court. Protest from counsel was unavailing as the court ruled she would be held for court.

Accessory Cases
The case of the seven charged with being accessories after the fact was taken up as a joint case. County Detective Lee testified to conversations with all seven of them and the stories of them all agreed as to general details.

The stories were that they had met at Campbell's on the night of October 15, going to an Ellwood road dance hall and from there out to a place beyond East New Castle where Edward Campbell was to get some whiskey. He did not get it there and they turned and started back into town, heading for Cades place on the East Brook road. Campbell getting some whiskey on the way.

Practically all of them told of seeing Harry Gross and Billea Van Giesen go into the bed room and of being followed by William H. Cade, but they did not see Cade again. They told Lee that the party had broken up shortly after that and that Gross had seemed in a hurry to get started back to New Castle.

On Monday night they met at Campbell's and discussed what they would do. Most of them told Lee, according to his testimony, that they wanted to go to the authorities and tell what they knew but that Gross and Miss Van Giesen had persuaded them not to.

District Attorney Powers asked that the seven be held for June court and this was met by a joint protest from Attorneys Thomas W. Dickey, James W. Rhodes, Samuel L. McCracken, and M. Shumaker and Harry Frank.

"We admit our case is circumstantial," said District Attorney Powers, "but it is our theory that when Harry Gross and Miss Van Giesen went into that bed room Cade intruded. Angered by the act to his girl friend, we believe Gross struck the old man with a beer bottle and then left."

"It is not necessary for the commonwealth to produce all its testimony at a preliminary hearing, all we have to do is present evidence sufficient to warrant a further inquiry by the grand jury and this we think we have done."

As Powers declared that the commonwealth believed Gross and Miss Van Giesen had gone into the bed room for immoral purposes, Miss Van Giesen, sitting next to him, turned and with fire in her eyes yelled, "that's a lie."

Alderman Brice's court room was packed to the doors for the hearing and many were turned away. Many relatives and friends of the defendants were present. Gross and Miss Van Giesen were remanded back to the county jail, and three of the defendants on the accessory charge were taken back, four of them having secured bail.

THE READING CIRCLE MUSICALE-TEA EVENT

Mrs. William J. Caldwell of the Wilmington road proved a pleasing hostess Monday afternoon to members of the Reading Circle and special guests, who accompanied them in observance of their annual general day. The occasion was in the form of a musicale-tea and proved one of the most delightful gatherings of the season.

The program in charge of Mrs. W. A. Mayberry was opened with violin selections given by Michael Caruso, entitled "Ave Maria" and "Frasquita". He concluded with a composition of his own.

Miss Elsie McGeorge entertained with two readings, "The Pudding" by Isabelle Fiske and "I'm An Idiot" by James Whitcomb Riley.

Mrs. Mayberry sang beautifully "Alice Blue Gown" with Miss Iva Mayberry, accompanist; Miss McGeorge gave another reading, "The Lesson With the Fan" with Kathryn Nesbitt, Allen at the piano. Frank Taylor favored the guests with three piano selections—"Liebestraum" by Liszt; "Sextette From Lucia" for the left hand only and "Gipsy Rondo" was the closing selection.

A short business period was conducted and new year books, Mrs. I. M. Henly, chairman, were passed out at this time.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. F. Rentz served dainty refreshments, and at the beautifully appointed tea table Mrs. Fred Smith poured.

The event brought a most active season to a close for members, and in October regular sessions will again be resumed, opening with a luncheon.

Several Seek Dance Pavilion

Person Who Obtains Dance
Hall Pavilion To Open
Memorial Day

DO NOT PLAN TO REMOVE CONCESSIONS

There are several persons who hope to obtain the dance pavilion concession at Cascade Park for the coming summer according to reports in city hall and it is probable that if the conveyance of the park by the Pennsylvania company to the city recreational board is authorized Friday the concession may be let soon thereafter.

Memorial day is one of the biggest days of the Cascade season and as the person who obtains the pavilion would probably want to do any repairs necessary, such as improving the floor, he would have to use considerable speed to have it in tiptop condition for Memorial day, which is one week from today.

It was also learned in city hall circles today that within the near future concessionaire and city officials may meet for the purpose of entering into contracts. It has been decided, it is reported, that all of the concessions now having concessions at the park will be permitted to operate this year.

It is not yet known what city council intends to do relative to the lower route to the park this year although it is proposed it is said to make negotiations whereby the lower road can be used as a one way drive, with a regulated mileage whereby persons can ride through Cunningham park, Gaston park and Cascade Park.

mittee chamber packed to the doors, and with thousands milling around outside the Capitol trying to get in. Police controlled the crowd with great difficulty.

His defense and explanation of the private banking system preceded questioning by members of the senate committee and its counsel, Ferdinand Pecora.

Charges that bankers "force" their way into boards of directors, he said, were "carelessly made." He assured the committee that no partner of the House of Morgan had ever done so.

As Morgan took the witness stand Senators Fletcher (D) of Florida, chairman, Couzens (R) of Michigan, Reynolds (D) of North Carolina, Barkley (D) of Kentucky, Cofitigan (D) of Colorado, McAdams (D) of California, Adams (D) of Colorado, Byrnes (D) of South Carolina, Goldsborough (R) of Maryland, Townsend (R) of Delaware, and Bulkley (D) of Ohio, were gathered at the committee table.

Morgan sat next to Bulkley. Fletcher administered the oath to Morgan. The banker said: "I do," in a firm tone.

David General Counsel.
John W. Davis, his general counsel, sat directly behind him—ready to interpose objections and to advise the capitalist on his rights.

"Mr. Morgan do you desire to make any statement?" asked Fletcher.

"It is our desire—naturally to do all we can to help," he replied.

He said he had prepared a statement regarding his own views on the "duties of private bankers," and that he preferred to read it to the committee.

Pecora halted the hearing to get a printed copy of Morgan's statement. Belatedly, copies of it were passed among the committee senators. It was a lengthy statement of seven pages.

Morgan said his firm conducted

"a general banking business such as is conducted by a private banker under the laws of the state of New York."

WASHINGTON, May 23.—At the close of business on December 31, last year, the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. had on hand:
$33,000,000 in cash;
$7,300,000 in call loans;
$224,000,000 in government securities.

These figures were supplied the senate banking committee today by J. P. Morgan himself in response to questions.

During 1932, the company accepted $340,000,000 in deposits.

Report made to the police this morning by his parents, was to the effect that Robert Exler Armstrong of 310 East Wallace avenue, reported in Monday's paper as missing from his home for several days, had arrived in Washington, D. C., after hitch hiking there.

The information was obtained from a letter received by one of his boy friends. In the letter, he stated that he planned to go on down into Virginia and expected to be back in his home here in a week or two.

Youngstown Man Speaks At Noon Hour Meeting Of Lions Club

The Lions club today was told that the government should establish a river barge canal thru the Beaver, Shenango and Mahoning valleys if only "to perpetuate the great area of human skill which has congregated in this tremendously important industrial section."

H. S. Warwick, Youngstown, assistant treasurer of the Beaver, Mahoning and Shenango Rivers Improvement Association, was speaking. The canal advocate, associated with the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Company, addressed the club at its weekly luncheon.

Mr. Warwick said that the government and industry owes the canal to the workers of the district. Secretary A. W. Chilton of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce introduced the speaker. The Lions heard Carbis A. Walker, Winston-Salem, N. C., Lion, a New Castle native, bring greetings from their brothers in the southern state. It was Mr. Walker's father, Joseph Milton Walker, who built Cascade Park in 1898 as chief engineer of the local street railways. He is here temporarily for a visit with Plaingrove relatives.

The North Carolinian, by his attendance today, continued a perfect attendance record at Lions' luncheons which he commenced when he became a Lion four years ago.

In sweet and loving memory of our beloved husband and father, whose birthday was May 22nd, and who passed away one year ago today, May 23rd, 1932.

When the evening shades are falling, Dad,
And I'm sitting all alone
To my heart there comes a longing,
If he only could come home.
Sad and silent was his call
So dearly loved by one and all
No one knows the silent heartache
Only those who shared can tell
But many a silent tear we shed,
Dad,
For the one we loved so well
Still in memory you are with us
As you always were before.

Gordon Admits Being In Hotel During Slaying

"Waxy" Gordon Denies Actual Killing Of Two Beer Racketeers In Hotel

ALSO DENIES HE WAS WITH GIRL

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, May 23.—Waxy Gordon, New York's "public enemy number one," admitted to the authorities Monday that he was in the Elizabeth-Carter Hotel in Elizabeth, N. J., on the afternoon of April 12 when gunmen murdered Max Hassel and Max Greensberg, alleged beer racketeers.

Gordon made this admission to New Jersey authorities who questioned him at the federal building, where he was arraigned and held in $100,000 bail for early trial on charges of evading $382,974 taxes on his income of $1,616,900 in 1930 and 1931.

The kingpin racketeer was captured Sunday at a hunting lodge near Monticello, N. Y. The federal authorities are trying to send him to the Atlanta penitentiary in the same manner in which they put Al Capone behind the bars.

Gordon denied all knowledge of the actual killings. He said he was in another room on the eighth floor when he heard the shots.

He said that when he heard the shots he "beat it."

He also denied he was with a girl in the hotel at the time.

The double murder of Hassel and Greensberg, the latter said to have been a partner of Gordon's, was one of the underworld sensations of the new "legalized beer era."

Hassel and Greensberg were found in room 824 of the hotel, riddled with bullets. On a table in the office-like room were eight glasses in which liquor had been served.

Bodies Riddled
Three bullets had been pumped into Hassel. Two of them entered his head, one pierced his chest.

Greensberg was found slumped in a big swivel chair before a desk, three bullets in his head. In his pockets were $1,737 in currency and a loaded .32-caliber revolver.

Hassel was well known in Pennsylvania, having at one time, according to the police, had breweries in Reading, Pa. It was reported that Hassel's brewery interests had been merged with Gordon's.

Police Vacations Start On Monday

Will Enjoy Two Weeks Freedom From Regular Duties This Summer

Members of the city police force on Monday drew their annual vacation dates. The first vacations for members of the force start on Monday, May 29. The last vacation will be the week of October 2. Each member of the force will have two weeks vacation this year. Most of the vacations will have been over by September 4.

The vacations have been arranged so that from four to five men will be off duty at the same time. They have been arranged, however, so that no more than one patrolman, one driver, or one detective shall be off duty at the same time.

The sergeants, motorcycle officers and the fingerprint expert have been placed in one group and only one of this group will be off at one time.

Vacations have been arranged so that the efficiency of the department may not in any way be less effective than under ordinary circumstances.

Dr. Clyde King Starts Battle To Retain Job

Files Answer To Quo Warranto Proceedings In State Supreme Court

PROPOSES TO KEEP POSITION TILL 1937

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, May 23.—Dr. Clyde L. King, who refuses to relinquish the chairmanship of the Public Service Commission despite Gov. Gifford Pinchot's failure to reappoint him, on Monday filed an answer to quo warranto proceedings instituted in the state supreme court.

Dr. King disputed the contention of Attorney General William A. Schnader that the tenure of office expired when the state senate adjourned without acting on his appointment. The chairman claimed he is entitled to the office until July 1, 1937, unless removed by senatorial action.

"I deny that the senate has failed to approve my appointment as alleged, inasmuch as the senate retains the question of approval for consideration," Dr. King argued. "I deny as an erroneous conclusion of law the allegation that my membership on the commission terminated with the adjournment of the senate."

Contention Disputed
Schnader's contention that the administrative code of 1929 constituted the commission as an agency of the executive branch of state government, also was disputed.

The Public Service Commission performs substantial administrative duties which distinguish it from the executive and judicial branches, Dr. King said.

Upon the agreement of counsel, the supreme court continued until the November term the case of the Senate Utilities Investigating committee resulting from an injunction obtained by Ira Jewell Williams. Williams obtained an injunction restraining the committee from using $100,000 appropriated at a special session of the general assembly for investigating purposes.

The lower court granted the injunction on the ground that the special session was not summoned for the purpose of appropriating money to a utility investigating committee.

SCIENTIST tells Screen Stars WHY this soap is such a wonderful aid in keeping skin YOUTHFUL

"LUX Toilet Soap actually contains precious elements skin itself has and must have to stay youthful," Scientist says!

Small wonder that this soap is used by 9 out of 10 screen stars —has been for years—to keep skin young looking!

FOR YEARS hundreds of Hollywood actresses have known WHAT Lux Toilet Soap does. That's why 686 out of 694 of the important movie actresses use this beauty soap regularly: It keeps their skin so soft ... smooth ... young looking!

The Secret of Youthful Skin

Now scientists tell why it does these things. Contained in this soap — they explain — are certain precious elements that skin itself has — and must have to stay young!

You're born with certain precious elements in your skin. Nature, herself, puts them there—in abundance, when skin is young. But little by little as the years go by, these precious elements are depleted ... a gradual loss occurs. Almost imperceptibly, day by day, skin ages, loses its fresh smoothness ... becomes rough ... dry ... old looking!

This Soap actually contains Precious Elements found in skin itself

Don't turn, discouraged, from your mirror and say, "I suppose it can't be helped!" For science now gives you this news: You can check the loss of those precious elements!

Scientists attest the fact that Lux Toilet Soap ... gentle, completely free from harshness, quickly soluble, and containing precious elements skin itself has ... is an unquestionable aid in keeping the skin young looking ... soft and smooth.

No wonder so many famous screen stars

For EVERY Type of Skin
...oily...dry..."in-between"—BEGIN TODAY

have found from years of personal experience that Lux Toilet Soap is so marvelous for their skin. No wonder it is the official soap in all big film studios!

A Younger Looking, Lovelier YOU

SCIENCE tells you that pure, safe Lux Toilet Soap actually contains precious elements all skin must have to look young. These elements are found in the skin itself—an abundance in fresh, youthful skin, less in skin that is growing old, unlovely.

HOLLYWOOD has proved through

"It certainly does keep the skin young looking," says Elizabeth Love, Lakeland, Florida

"I've been using Lux Toilet Soap for ever so long. From the very first I discovered that what the Hollywood stars say about this fine soap is true. It certainly does keep the skin young looking. And not only that, but it seemed to me in no time at all my skin became much clearer and softer. I certainly wouldn't use any other soap for my skin!"

Deposed Ruler Of Manchuria Has $4,000,000

Marshal Chang Hsueh-Liang
Has Fortune Stored
Away In New York Banks

IS NOW TOURING
PARTS OF EUROPE

By JOHN GOETTE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PEIPING, May 23.—A nest-egg of $4,000,000 tucked away in New York banks and the ability to write checks against this sum whenever the occasion arises, is helping to ease the exile of Marshal Chang Hsueh-Liang, former Manchurian war lord, International News Service learned today.

Marshal Chang is now touring Europe. Deposed by the Japanese as military ruler of 30,000,000 Manchurians, Chang stayed in Peiping until the fall of Jehoi City, but then closed up his palaces, packed away his jewels and treasures and bade farewell to Asia.

Checking Account
For the present at least, Chang is willing to keep his fortune in a checking account instead of investing it at a profitable interest.

Chang Hsueh-Liang inherited $10,000,000 when his father, Chang Tso-lin died in a bomb blast aboard his special train near Mukden. Chang Hsueh-Liang gave most of this away, donating $8,000,000 to found the North-Eastern University and the remainder for other schools.

His present fortune was amassed during his own long reign over Manchuria and North China.

Now that Chang is safely out of Asia, the Manchukuo government is remodeling his famous summer palace outside Mukden into a public garden and museum. The electrified barbed wire which he erected for his protection is being pulled apart and carted away.

SLAYING OF OFFICER UNSOLVED FOR YEAR

Police Officer Slain Year Ago

Today Marks Anniversary Of Hold-up Sensation In Seventh Ward

OFFICERS STILL WORKING ON CASE

Just one year ago today, Monday, May 23, 1932, on Liberty street, Seventh Ward, Patrolman Clarence Campbell, was shot and instantly killed by one of four holdup men, who then seized $23,000 in the car occupied by Ashley Hill and William McCombs, employees of the Mahoning Trust Company, to which concern the money belonged, and which then jumped into a waiting sedan car, made their getaway.

The murder of Campbell and the theft of the money still remains a mystery in the crime annals of Lawrence County and seems destined to remain so. In spite of a reward of $2,500 by the First National Bank of Lawrence County, the Union Trust Company and Mahoning Trust Company, the banks directly effected, and of $500 by the city, for the apprehension and conviction of the holdup men, the authorities are apparently no nearer to the solution of the case today, than they were the day it happened.

At times the trail has led the authorities to various cities, including Pittsburgh, Youngstown, Cleveland, Lorain and Detroit, where desperadoes believed to have been connected with the affair, have been viewed and interviewed. In each instance, the trail came to a dead end, nothing being found out with reference to this case.

It was between 8:30 and 8:45 a. m. on May 23, 1932 that the car with the bank's money arrived in front of the bank, which is located in the Liberty Hotel Building, Seventh Ward. In the front seat was Officer Campbell and William McCombs, while Ashley Hill was in the rear seat. The money was chained to the floor in the rear part of the car. Leon McCreary, another employee of the bank was in a car following immediately behind the first car.

As the bank car came to a stop, Officer Campbell got out, looked around and then apparently turned around to tell the bank employees that everything was all right.

As his back was turned, a stranger seated in front of the hotel, slipped a sawed off shotgun out of a box, which he had on his knees and which proved later to have been a box in which golf clubs are shipped, fired point blank in the back of the officer. The officer slumped to the sidewalk dead, as two other holdup men armed with sub-machine guns ordered Hill and McCombs at the point of a gun to give them the money.

Securing the money, these two men with the killer, rushed to the waiting maroon colored sedan bearing Ohio license 282-348, which apparently slipped onto the scene from no place in particular with a fourth man at the wheel, but which is believed to have come out of the alley to the side of the hotel, jumped in, and drove south to Montgomery avenue, then on out and onto the Mt. Jackson road. Roofing nails were scattered by the bandits to cause any pursuers trouble. The trail as far as the authorities here could determine led them as far as Poland, O., and was lost there.

The license number on the car proved to be those issued to a merchant in Lorain, O., who claimed that they and his car had been missing since the previous Saturday.

Within fifteen minutes after the commission of the crime, every avenue of escape from the county had been covered in so far as issuing a warning and officers were rushing from all surrounding cities and towns and this city toward the probable road of escape.

Two men who registered at the Liberty Hotel the previous night were evidently connected with the case, as it was one of these men, who gave the name of Tom Tenerico, and Pittsburgh as his address, who sat in front of the hotel with the box and pulled the gun out of the box and shot Campbell. The other man registered as Jim Polasky, of Youngstown. A number of people saw and talked with Tenerico as he called himself and the authorities feel sure of being able to identify these men, should they ever be apprehended.

On this first anniversary of the passing of Patrolman Campbell, the police and other authorities still hope that through some turn of the wheels of justice that his murder may be apprehended, as the case is still being prosecuted in the hope of capturing the bandits.

Seeks To Wed Adopted Daughter

Marriage license officials in Los Angeles have had their routine upset by the unusual application for a license to wed of James Putney Thomas, 52, of Palms, Cal., and his adopted daughter, Eloise Washburn Thomas, 25, who lives with him at his home. He adopted the girl legally in 1917, and when her mother died, he transferred his affections to her. Before granting the license the clerk before whom they appeared, Mrs. Louise Barnsdall, asked for a ruling from the county counsel. Photo shows the couple.

Westminster Girls Will Sing In City

Glee Club To Present Program At Emmanuel Baptist Church Wednesday

Music lovers of the South side are anticipating an unusual treat on Wednesday night when the Westminster Girls' Glee Club sings in the Emmanuel Baptist church at 8:15 o'clock. There is no admission at the door for the concert.

The Westminster Girls' Glee Club is under the direction of Miss Florence Thomas, a New Castle musician whose parents have been members of the Emmanuel Baptist church for many years. As a small girl she sang in the children's choir of the church, competed in eisteddfods and after completing her high school education in New Castle she studied herself for a musical career in eastern schools.

For some time she was engaged in teaching in New Jersey but was asked to come to New Castle to join the musical staff of the college. Her development of the Girls' Glee Club has been one of the musical features of Westminster in the past three years and the appearance of the club in the Emmanuel Baptist church Wednesday night will undoubtedly be met by a crowded house.

Pepper Martin Playing Great Since Comeback

Cardinals Send Martin To Third Base And He Has Been Wizard

IS AMONG BEST HITTERS IN LOOP

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service
Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 23.—Probably the greatest factor, and certainly the most heart-warming feature of the drive of the St. Louis Cardinals for the National League pennant is the brilliant work of Pepper Martin, the man who came back.

Hero of the world series of 1931 when he battled and ran wild against the Athletics, defeating them almost single-handed, the wild horse of the osage tumbled from the heights with a sickening thud last year. Success went both to his head and his feet. He pressed too much at bat, and wanted to try to steal second every time he got on base. And when he did show signs of recovering his form, injuries put him on the shelf.

Playing Third
The former outfielder was given a whack at the third base job this spring and his play has been the sensation of the league. He has been stopping all kinds of blazing drives down the third base alley and swooping in on bunts with all the dash and skill of Pie Traynor himself. He hasn't made an error in his last eight games.

At bat, Pep is the league's second best hitter. His homer with two on base in the tenth inning gave Bill Walker a 3-to-0 victory over Ed Brandt of the Boston Braves yesterday. It was the Cards' fifth straight win.

Pittsburgh's lead over New York was whittled to two games when Lefty Clark of Brooklyn blanked the Bucs 3 to 0, for his first triumph since the opening day of the season. The Dodgers took fourth place, passing Cincinnati. All three runs were scored off French in the fifth inning, O'Doul driving in two tallies.

Johnson Beaten
Jimmy Jordan, a rookie, replaced Glenn Wright at short for Brooklyn and Hack Wilson replaced Danny Taylor in center field. Elias Johnson of the Reds, who had turned in two one-hit games, was knocked out of the box at Cincinnati as he was swamped by the Giants, 9 to 0. Hal Schumacher held the Reds to three hits, while Sam Leslie had a perfect day at bat with four blows. New York had lost five straight.

The Phillies slugged the Cubs, 11 to 4, snapping Chicago's winning streak at four games. Two of the American League's best pitchers—Vernon Gomez of the Yankees and Wes Ferrell of Cleveland, hooked up in a thrilling duel which was broken up in the eighth inning when a single by Dickey with the bases loaded started the Yankees off to a 3 to 0 win. Each pitcher yielded six hits.

Red Sox Win
Chicago's White Sox came a cropper in Boston when George Pipgras beat them 3 to 2, his second victory since the Red Sox bought him from the Yankees. Dusty Cooke, another ex-Yankee, hit a homer and Johnny Hodapp had a perfect day at bat for the second successive day. The rejuvenated Red Sox now have a winning streak of three games.

Hank Greenberg drove in four runs for Detroit but his mates didn't give him much help and the Tigers dropped a close one to Washington 6 to 5.

A single by Chicago in the eighth staked the Athletics to a 6 to 5 decision over the St. Louis Browns, their fourth straight win.

Maxie Baer Is Engaged To Wed Star Of Stage

Miss June Knight, Musical
Comedy Star, Will Wed
Heavyweight Fighter

MUST WIN FROM MAXIE SCHMELING

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 23.—When Max Baer starts throwing punches at Max Schmeling in the Yankee Stadium the night of June 8, the Jewish lad will have an even greater incentive than his oft-expressed desire to beat a German and get a shot at the heavyweight title and the million that goes with it.

For Baer will be fighting for the love and the hand of beautiful June Knight, ingenue of a Broadway musical hit. Needless to say, Max will take any chance to win the golden-haired, blue-eyed, sleek little beauty whose gurgling laugh and cooing voice are the talk of the town.

Admits Engagement
The gorgeous June admitted her engagement to Baer last night. Sitting in her dressing room in the Apollo Theatre while she made up for the performance, coo don't get jealous Max, her colored maid was there with us, Miss Knight told the writer she had promised to marry Max if he won the heavyweight title.

"Even if he fails to win it, and I know he can't fail with me there rooting for him," said Miss Knight. "I'd marry him anyhow for he's the most wonderful boy in the world. I'm simply mad about him. He's really adorable and sweet. They tell me he's a wild man in the ring but I only know him outside the ring and then he's as kind and gentle as a baby."

To Open Season At New Wilmington

First Game Of Season To Be Played On Wednesday Evening

NEW WILMINGTON, May 23.—Baseball fans of New Wilmington will be treated to their first game of the season when the newly organized nine will take on the Deer Creek team in a nightcap to be played at the college field on Wednesday evening. The field has been graded and filled and is in fine shape for the initial game. An aggregation of former varsity stars has been banded together and New Wilmington looks forward to a successful season.

Tom Jones and "Whitey" Herriot will do the mound work for the local lads and will be backed by Blake or Ligo. Henry Wetlich has been doing nice work at first base and will probably stick to the initial sack this season. Axe has been displaying some ability at second and will probably get the call for that position when the team trots on the field Wednesday. John Eagleson will probably be on hand to guard third base while many rookies and veterans are on hand for outfield positions including Benwell, Gilliland, Eagleson, and Lundy. Wilbert, "Red" Anderson is in charge of the team this year and has been hard at work whipping the team into shape.

With ideal weather conditions prevailing for the first time this season for them, the Legion of Honor golfers made merry at the Municipal Course last evening, and some hot set-tes were reported.

Capt. V. A. Smith was medalist for the evening, but even he was a little off in his game. Other good scores were turned in by Dr. Jay Reed, and Dr. Campbell.

Some "rough" play was indulged in during the evening, and quite a few of the boys had a hard time distinguishing their ball from the dandelion seed puffs, but perseverance won out for them.

Dr. Cleland went about the matter as if it were a major operation, and Attorney Walter Reynolds was noted occasionally addressing the ball, but most of the other players adopted a lighter vein.

By next Monday evening, the course officials expect to have the fairways in mid-season condition, and some real hot play is expected to result.

Tony Canzoneri To Defend Title

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

It is seldom in athletics that youth is denied and last night Ted Yaros walked out of a Pittsburgh ring with a 10 round decision from Tommy Freeman, former welterweight champion hanging to his belt. They fought at 155 pounds.

Al Aspen and Mital Davis, his riding mechanic, both of Philadelphia, were injured when their auto, attempting to qualify for the 500 mile Indianapolis speedway race, May 30, crashed into a wall.

Owners of the Castle bowl have placed the reorganization of the bowl in charge of Ed Fritz. How well the plans work out depends whether or not there will be boxing here this summer. The bowl has always a good play in the hot weather months.

Governor Pinchot has signed the Ederer bill, revising the deer kill limit to provide six to a camp instead of one to a hunter and six to a camp. It will permit a hunter, if a member of a camp, to kill more than one deer so long as the camp's kill does not exceed six. Under the former law a hunter who was a member of a camp could not shoot at a deer after he had killed one.

Discarded Players May Receive Chance

Commission May Make Rule
Allowing Released Players To Sign

Lawrence County Twilight Baseball leagues are attracting fandom, the result of good games in the American and National leagues and with the teams down to the player limit it is expected that the fight for first half honors will sharpen. It was stated today that the commissioners will hold a meeting and it is anticipated they may make some rule whereby players who have been discarded can have an opportunity to sign with teams that may desire their services. The commissioners have been requested to make such a rule.

Under the present system the players who have been released are "out" insofar as the Lawrence County Twilight league is concerned.

Games scheduled for today in the American loop follows: West Pittsburgh at Castlewood, Peers at Tigers, and Polish Nationals at Bessemer.

McMAINS WINS SCHOOL MEET

New Wilmington Boy Wins
Track Supremacy In School Contest

NEW WILMINGTON, May 23.—At a meet held on the College track field on Saturday, McMains, versatile trackster of New Wilmington High School earned new laurels, when he proved his supremacy over eight other contestants, nosing out Rose by 2-3 of a point.

When the figures were finally totaled it was found that McMains had garnered 79 pointers while Rose had succeeded in amassing 78 1-3 points. Throughout the entire meet the interest of the spectators was focused on these two athletes and their respective scores show the abilities of the two. The winner was awarded a gold sweater with a blue letter, while second high man received a white sweater with a blue "W". McMains was supreme in the dash events, while Rose was best in the field. The meet started at nine o'clock in the morning and lasted throughout the entire day, the only discouraging feature being wet weather making for a slow track. The meet was in charge of Coach Walter Hutchison.

The events:
100 yard dash—time 11 1-5 seconds: first, Rose; second, McMains; third, Mercer; fourth, McCaslin; fifth, Gilliland.
220 yard dash—time 24 4-5 seconds: first, McMains; second, Rose and Mercer; fourth, Eagleson; fifth, McCrumb.

Mining Camp Is Swallowed Up By Tremor Of Earth

Camp Of Burroville Just Swallowed Up Years Ago By Yawning Earth

HAD SLIDE DOWN MOUNTAIN SIDE

(International News Service)
MINA, Nev., May 23.—The complete ghost camp of Burroville, which according to old-time residents, slid down the side of a mountain near here recently and came to rest on the valley floor, had evidently been swallowed by the earth today following a new series of earth tremors.

The area between this camp, a railroad division point on the Tonopah-Reno road and supply center for several cinabar mines, and the once famous boom town of Gilbert, had been consistently rocked for a period of several weeks.

Noted Story Tellers.
Tall tales are told by some of the "desert rats" who have tramped the desert for half a century. Some have been verified and others fit the category of "long ones" that have added to the story telling fame of the old prospector.

Zachary Kendall, dean of these parts, gave an eye-witness account of the transplanting of Burroville, a mining village that once was perched on the slope of a mountain between Mina and Gilbert. He said the entire camp slid easily down the mountain and stopped, buildings leaning at a precarious angle, on the flat below.

Photographers rushed to the scene from several of the more populous centers, only to find the sad-faced Kendall camped in a clump of sagebrush, his faded eyes moist.

Just Swallowed Up.
"Where's Burroville?" the newspaperman demanded.
"Well, she was right there this morning," he pointed to a cleared space a few rods away where a gray furrow like that made by a huge plow showed above the desert floor, "but we had a real bad quake a little bit ago and the hull camp was swallowed up, just disappeared into the ground and that hillock was thrown up over the hole."
Although no great damage outside of broken dishes and a few cracked windows was caused by the chronic earthquake, the scattered residents remained apprehensive. Because of the danger and force of the quiverings, many mine leaders and prospectors are staying strictly above ground, not daring to venture into any shafts that might suddenly be pinched shut by earth tremors.

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 23.—The bulls again took hold of the stock market today and sent the list up 1 to more than 3 points in active trading.

The opening of the Senate investigation into J. P. Morgan & Co. had little apparent influence. Other speculators concentrated attention on the break recovery in commodities, favorable international aspects of the beginning of open market purchases of government bonds by the federal reserve system.

Wheat set the pace in commodities with a spurt of 2 cents a bushel, regaining part of the 7-cent a bushel slump of the last few days. Cotton rose nearly $1 a bale. The dollar slipped further against foreign currencies. Strength in U. S. issues stimulated the whole bond list.

Revival of bullish sentiment in Wall Street was apparent at the opening. Heavy buying poured into the list and sent the high speed ticker behind.

The steels and rails were the pace-makers, steel preferred spurring nearly 3 points. Atchafalaya, Delaware & Hudson, Lackawanna and N. Y. Central provided the carriers with leadership.

Textile issues were stimulated by strength in Celanese and Industrial Rayon. American Telephone, Allied Chemical, Du Pont and American Can were strong leaders. Utilities were better in sympathy with the rest of the list.

General Motors was again in enormous demand, one block alone totaling 14,000 shares. Other auto shares were up substantially. Farm stocks rallied with grains while oils and coppers were better.
